“Hear what the Voice from Heav'n proclaims,
For all the pious Dead.
Sweet is the Savor of their Names,
And foft their fleeing Bed.
They die in JESUS, and are bleft.
How kind their Slumbers are,
From fuff'rings and from Sins releas'd,
And free from ev'ry Snare.
Far from this World of Toil and Strife,
They're prefent in the LORD;
The Labors of their mortal Life,
End in a large Reward.”

on the 5th of Octr 1820 ;

Afflictions sore, long time she bore ;
But still her God was near ;
She said, I've made my Peace with Him,
And death I do not fear
So now cold death, has still'd her breath
And brought her to the Grave.
We trust her Souls at rest with Christ

If threecore years and ten this Life exceeds,
We're soon depreff'd with Age, and pain succeeds ;
Thrice happy they while Young who're call'd to rife,
To brighter Mansions and ferener Skies ;
Yet should th'Almighty thus prolong thy days,
Divote them with submiffion to his Praife.
